

ASID “Getting To Know You” Submission Guidelines

Members interested in being featured in ASID “Getting To Know You” segments must provide the following information to be considered:

- Updated Contact information:
 - Full Name
 - ASID member number
 - Name of company
 - Design specialty
 - E-mail address
- One head shot submitted as a high-resolution digital image, in color
- Maximum of four project (color) photos. ASID has the express right to select the photos to be used in the feature
- A minimum of 10 responses to the 17 to profile questions

By completing the member profile, and submitting all parts for consideration, the ASID Member has gives ASID express permission to use their likeness and project photos in the feature. ASID reserves the right to make editorial changes as necessary, without compromising the integrity of the content provided in member responses. The Member is also aware that submission does not guarantee publication. Members who are selected for publication will be notified by ASID.

All information listed above should be submitted electronically to memberprofile@asid.org. For additional questions, contact the Member Development Team at 202-546-3480.